CHURCH/SCHOOL DUMPSTER- In recent months, we have been receiving overage charges for over filling the trash dumpster. These fees can be quite substantial, and we are looking at ways to reduce the amount of items going in the dumpster. While it is nice to have the option to dump things in there that are not church/school related, we ask that we all refrain from using the dumpster for things not related to the church/school. For any questions, please contact the trustees.

THANK YOU from the Washington DC Group for the tremendous support of aluminum can donations! We want to remind you that if you do not want to bring them to school, Jay Werling has a matching trash collection can at this residence. It is located under the awning of the red barn. 4126 E 800 N.

Everyone is invited to attend the PTL Skating Party on Friday, December 6th from 4-6 pm at the West Park Skating Rink in Huntington. There is no cost for this event except for food and drink. PTL will be paying the cost. Please plan to attend for a fun evening with family and friends!

Please welcome our new student:
Gabriel Gardner who is in 3rd grade and excited to be here!

Gabriel lives with his mother, Mary
Blackman and older brother and sister.

Parents may access the new church and school website at <https://blcsossian.org/> There you will find shortcuts to the student and parent dashboards.

PRIVACY NOTICE

We all love to share pictures of our child's school activities and accomplishments. However, we have to be very careful where those pictures are posted and respect that other students might also be in the picture. Parents, please remember to not post pictures that may have students in them other than your own child. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the school office before posting anything. Thank you

2nd Quarter Chapel Offering Project: Food Drive for the Seminary

This quarter we are supporting the Food Co-op at the Seminary in Fort Wayne. They help the families of seminary students provide for their needs while these students are preparing to serve the church as pastors and deaconesses. These students and their families sacrifice a lot for the sake of the Gospel, so the seminary co-op is an invaluable resource for these future servants of the church.

Along with our weekly Wednesday Chapel offerings, we will be collecting the following items:

Oct 7 - 18 Canned Goods

Oct 28 - Nov 8 Personal Hygiene Items

Nov 11 - 22 Boxed Food

Dec 2 - 20 Paper Products and Snack Foods

*Miscellaneous items that can be donated at anytime are:
Over the counter medicine and baking goods*

Christmas Light

Jim Gaffigan, the comedian, has noticed how backward our Christmas traditions can seem: "Okay... Chop down that tree and bring it inside. Then take all these lights and put them outside." We laugh because in the hassle of setting up the tree and putting lights on the house who hasn't thought, "Why am I doing this?!" But we do it, and once it's all up, the sight of a Christmas tree in the window or lights twinkling in the darkness brings warmth to our hearts and cheers our spirits.

The deeper reason behind these traditions shines into our lives as we celebrate the birth of the Child who brought light and life into our dark world. The first chapter of St. John's Gospel tells us, "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it... The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world." The little Lord Jesus, born in Bethlehem, is the Light of the world. So as we enjoy our Christmas lights at this darkest time of year we are reminded of His light that cannot be overcome by the darkness of sin, death, or sorrow. And the Christmas tree, beautifully decorated and topped with a star or an angel, reminds us of another tree, on which the Lord Jesus died. That tree was not green, but it was beautifully decorated with His blood. There was no bright shining star or angel, but the message of the cross is still shared with all people. For all who dwell in darkness, the Good News of Jesus is a light that brings forgiveness and life.

I hope you enjoy decorating your homes, stringing up the lights, and gathering around the Christmas tree. I hope you and your family find delight in these traditions. And I hope the Christmas tidings of comfort and joy will shine in your life this year and for many more to come.

Merry Christmas!

Your servant in Christ,

Rev. Anthony Dodgers

TIGER

Tales for Tigers From the Bethlehem School Library

I recently heard someone describe this time of year as "Book Season." Of course, every season is for books, but when the daylight hours and temperatures wane, it's the ideal time for a cozy blanket and a stack of stories. We have many family favorites we read every year, many we read aloud as a family.

One old favorite, now new in the school library, is "How the Grinch Stole Christmas." Many of us enjoy the animated cartoon every year, but there is something especially charming about reading the original aloud.

(Maybe see who in your family can do the best Boris Karloff impression!)

We also have Tasha Tudor's Christmas Book, "Take Joy!" which is a compilation of classic stories, poems, and carols, all charmingly illustrated. At a glance many students may find it too old fashioned or intimidating, but it would be a perfect volume for families to enjoy together.

The poem below, an excerpt from Kenneth Grahame's "The Wind in the Willows" is part of the collection. We hope you find something, old or new, to enjoy reading during the Advent and Christmas seasons.

CAROL

*Villagers all, this frosty tide,
Let your doors swing open wide,
Though wind may follow, and snow beside,
Yet draw us in by your fire to bide;
Joy shall be yours in the morning!*

*Here we stand in the cold and the sleet,
Blowing fingers and stamping feet,
Come from far away you to greet—
You by the fire and we in the street—
Bidding you joy in the morning!*

*For ere one half of the night was gone,
Sudden a star has led us on,
Raining bliss and benison—
Bliss to-morrow and more anon,
Joy for every morning!*

*Goodman Joseph toiled through the snow—
Saw the star o'er a stable low;
Mary she might not further go—
Welcome thatch, and litter below!
Joy was hers in the morning!*

*And then they heard the angels tell
'Who were the first to cry NOWELL?
Animals all, as it befell,
In the stable where they did dwell!
Joy shall be theirs in the morning!'*

Merry Christmas

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Grief during the Holidays

The holiday season is here, and with it comes a focus on family, traditions, social events, and cheer—all of which can cause difficult emotions to surface. Whether this is the first, second, or tenth holiday after your loved one's death, the emotions that may arise in the days ahead can blindside you.

Separation by death affects us greatly and the grieving process can take a long, long time. While the passage of time may lessen the pain, its impact will be with you for many years. There are steps in the grieving process, and they often run a more circular course than a linear one. The ache of loneliness and grief are frequently more intense during significant times of the year, such as birthdays, anniversaries, holidays, and the date of the person's death. Because these days hold so many memories, both good and bad, our sadness is especially painful. Please know that feeling “empty” during such times is normal, understandable, and to be expected, even for Christians.

One of the most helpful ways to walk this journey of grief is to be with others who can respect your feelings, offer compassion, and honor their memory. As Christians, we take comfort in Jesus Christ, whose death and resurrection opens to us the way of everlasting life. And we look forward to the time when God promises to wipe away every tear and “there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain” (Rev. 21:4 NIV).

Jesus championed for us the combination of faith and grief as He mourned over the death of Lazarus, wept and prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane, and faithfully suffered for hours on the cross for the sins of the world. We can take comfort in knowing that Jesus has experienced all of our pain, including loss, rejection, betrayal, and death. Although we may feel weary and carry the heavy burden of loss, our hope in Jesus allows us to rejoice. At His birth, the world broke forth into a new day. In the city of David, a Savior was born to carry all of our pain one day to Calvary. This is our great hope at Christmas—Jesus, who came to earth as a baby and died on the cross in our place, will one day return. A glorious morn is coming when there will be no more tears, pain, loneliness, or despair.
