“Make a Joyful Noise”

Firstfruits of Spring

For Spring Break, we visited family in eastern Pennsylvania. Even though the weather was cold and wet most days, we were able to visit Washington D.C. for the peak blooms of the famous cherry trees. All the other trees were still bare, nature not yet fully awake to the new season. These delicate white and pink blossoms served as the early sign of Spring to come.

Our trip also included visits to historical sites. We walked through Antietam Battlefield in Maryland, the site of the deadliest one-day battle in the Civil War. On September 17, 1862, over 22,000 Union and Confederate soldiers died. Later in the week, we stopped at the Flight 93 Memorial in western Pennsylvania, where that airplane crashed on September 11, 2001. Forty passengers and crew resisted the hijackers and so saved the U.S. Capitol from being hit. Both the battlefield and the memorial are sites of remembrance for the men and women who laid down their lives for others.

Now it's Holy Week, and our hearts and minds are drawn to the One who laid down His life as the sacrifice for us all. The night before He died, Jesus said, “Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends” (John 15:13). Jesus laid down His life on the cross, but then He also took it up again three days later (John 10:18). He died and rose again for us. And so Christ is the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep... For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at His coming those who belong to Christ (1 Cor. 15:20–23).

The D.C. cherry blossoms are the firstfruits of Spring—the sign that more buds and blooms will follow. But Christ's resurrection is the firstfruits of that Eternal Spring. We live in the hope that one day all those dead in the fields of Maryland and Pennsylvania and Ossian, Indiana will rise up, and those who believe in Christ will live forever with Him.

Happy Easter!

Your servant in Christ,

Pastor Anthony Dodgers

La Cuaresma en Puerto Rico Lent in Puerto Rico

Valentine's Day in Puerto Rico

Valentine's Day in Puerto Rico is not just about romance; it is an opportunity to celebrate all types of love. It is common for friends to also exchange little gifts to express affection for one another. Fuente de Vida in Ponce held a “Dia de Amistad” (Day of Friendship) with brunch and painting activities for people to enjoy one another's company. As always, the event began with the word of the Lord delivered by one of our pastors.

To be added to or removed from this mailing list, send an email message to courtney.mroczenski@lcmsintl.org with the word ADD or REMOVE in the subject line.

Lent in Spanish is La Cuaresma. The term comes from the word for forty, cuarenta, because Lent is forty days from Ash Wednesday to Easter (not counting Sundays). This period is a time of repentance in the light of the cross of Christ which we are called to participate in as Christians. The forty days reflects Israel's 40 years in the wilderness and Christ's 40 days of fasting in the wilderness. Ash Wednesday can help us understand the spirit of Lent. On Ash Wednesday we received a cross of ashes on our foreheads and heard the words “You are dust, and to dust you shall return (Polvo eres y a polvo volverás). The ashes are a clear and messy reminder of our sinful condition for which we merit death. It also reminds us of the temporal nature of all things and human works. However, the cross shape of the ashes reminds us of the sure hope of eternal life in Christ who bore our death and punishment on the cross and rose again that all who believe in him shall live even though they die. Lent, therefore, is a time to abandon all hope in ourselves, our works, the world or anything in it—things which like dust are here today and tomorrow are carried away on the wind—and to look only to Christ and to his perfect work on the cross which alone has the power to take away sin and give eternal life. We, our idols, and our works shall pass away and turn to dust, but Christ shall never pass away—He is risen! And all who trust in him shall rise to new life, even though they die. Thanks be to God who gives us the victory in Christ Jesus our Lord! Amen.

• PRAISE GOD FOR:

- His grace in calling sinners to labor in his harvest field and the continual mercy by which he sustains them and all believers.

Other News & Updates

Confirmations:

Thanks be to God! Four individuals in Bayamón made the good confession and were confirmed in the Lutheran Church and received into communion on February 15. Two of the confirmed were missionary children. We thank God for the work he has begun and continues in them, and we pray that he bring it completion in the day of Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Men's group:

Under the passionate guidance of Pastor Sergio Maita, we held the inaugural event for an islandwide men's group. All male missionaries and about 20 men from our congregations across the island gathered in Arecibo (a potential church plant site) to hear God's word, share food and fellowship, and discuss the purpose of the group. It was a great encouragement for all who attended. The group, named Caballeros Luteranos, will continue to gather four times a year.

Podcast:

Don't forget about our new podcast: Cristo en el Centro (Christ in the Center). Liking and subscribing helps us reach people with the pure gospel of "Christ crucified for sinners." As the name suggests, Christ is always in the center of every episode.

Foro: Don't forget! Our Spring Foro is March 6-8. If you can't attend this time, make plans for the Fall Foro (info forthcoming).

Men from our three Lutheran churches gather on the beach for fellowship grounded in God's word.

There are many opportunities to serve as short-term or GEO missionaries. Check out the current list and download an application at lcms.org/service. Click on "Service Opportunities."

Alleluia! Christ Is Risen!

Easter Day is the third and final day of the Paschal Triduum – the Latin term for the “three days” from Maundy Thursday evening until Easter Sunday evening. But it’s not the last day of Easter! The Octave of Easter comes to an end on the following Sunday. But Easter isn’t over then, either! Rather, the Easter season lasts a full fifty days until the feast of Pentecost, more than counter-balancing the forty days of Lent.

Starting with Jesus’ resurrection, the Easter season is filled with the manifestation of Jesus’ divine glory. Throughout the fifty days, we hear of Jesus’ miracles and his encouragement to the disciples, whether it’s on the road to Emmaus, on the Mount of the Ascension, or in the upper room.

A Brief History The holiday that we now know as “Easter” was originally called Pascha, the Greek word for Passover. Christians carried over the tradition of Pascha, acknowledging Christ as the new Passover Lamb (1 Corinthians 5:7).

It’s not surprising, then, that Easter traditions sometimes echo Passover traditions; for example, the Jewish date of Passover was based on the lunar cycle, so the date of Easter moves according to the stages of the moon.

Similarly, just as Passover was an eight-day affair, so is Easter. The “Octave of Easter” is the name for the eight-day celebration of our Lord’s resurrection. The Church fathers saw in these eight days a symbol of new life and a new creation.

Easter traditionally begins at the Vigil on Saturday at sundown, the Jewish start of a new day. One of the oldest and most historic services of the Church, the Easter Vigil can be traced to the first celebrations of Easter in the years immediately after Christ walked the earth.

After the service, Christians typically begin their Easter celebrations in full force, breaking their Lenten fast and starting their observance of the Church’s most joyous season. The altar is re-decorated, and the Alleluias finally return. At dawn, Sunday morning services mark the first official day of Easter.

One of the characteristic moments of the Vigil service is when the celebrant cries out the Paschal Greeting: “Alleluia, Christ is Risen!” The people respond with joy: “He is risen indeed; Alleluia!” This greeting remains the customary Christian greeting throughout the fifty days of Easter.

Eat A Rainbow Every Day!

To be healthy, kids need to eat a variety of colorful fruits and vegetables every day. By using a rainbow as a guide, you can ensure that children benefit from a wide range of vitamins and minerals. No single fruit or vegetable provides all the nutrients that kids need. By breaking produce down into color groups of red, orange, yellow, green and purples you can make eating fruits and vegetables fun and easy for kids! Even at a very young age, kids can easily grasp the concept of eating a rainbow.

Eating colorful fruits and vegetables help protect kids from cancer and other chronic diseases. They're nutritious and delicious. The color makes all the difference. Within each color are disease fighting phytochemicals, the good guys, that fight to keep you strong and healthy. Fruits and vegetables also provide a wide range of valuable nutrients; like fiber, folate, potassium, magnesium, vitamins A and C. So be colorful! Eat a rainbow of fruits and vegetables every day.

EAT MORE COLOR

The best way to get all of the vitamins, minerals and nutrients you need is to eat a variety of colorful fruits and veggies. All forms of fruits and vegetables (fresh, frozen, canned and dried) can be part of a heart-healthy diet. Choose types without added salt and sugar.

The Money Minute: April Is for "Super Savers!"

Happy April! While the flowers are blooming outside, something else is growing this month: Financial Literacy Month. This is a global celebration designed to help everyone, especially our littlest earners, get smarter with their cents.

What's making the news?

- Tax Day Talk: April 15 is the big deadline for adults to finish their taxes. It's the perfect time to explain that taxes are like a "membership fee" we pay to help take care of our parks, libraries, and roads.
- Spring Cleaning Sales: April is famous for "Spring Cleaning" discounts. Retailers are clearing out winter gear, making it a great month to teach kids about strategic shopping, buying what we need when the price is lowest.

Activity: The "Clear Jar" Challenge

To make money visual for young kiddos, here is a fun hands-on activity you can try this month!

- The Setup: Instead of an opaque piggy bank, find three clear jars. Label them: Save, Spend, and Give.
- The Mission:
 - 1. Whenever your kiddo earns a chore reward or finds a stray nickel, have them divide it among the jars.
 - 2. The "Why": Use the clear jars so they can see their money growing.
 - 3. The Bonus: On April 30, count the "Give" jar together and let them pick a local charity (like an animal shelter) to support. It teaches them that money isn't just for buying things, it's for helping, too!
